Built from 10294

LEGO 10294 is the Titanic: at 1.35 m long, one of the largest sets LEGO has made, split into three sections to show the grand staircase, the engine room and the boiler rooms. Its pieces come in the liner's black, white, tan and dark red.

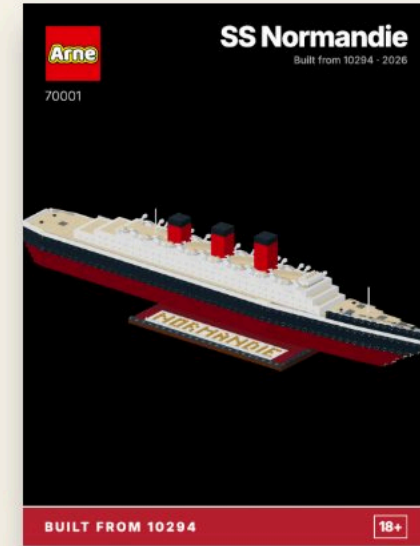

2026

The French Line's Art Deco queen, from the Titanic's own hull plates.

1 9,092 pieces in LEGO 10294 Titanic (2021).

2 5,644 of them build this model: 62% of the box.

3 Nothing else to buy: every piece comes out of the box.

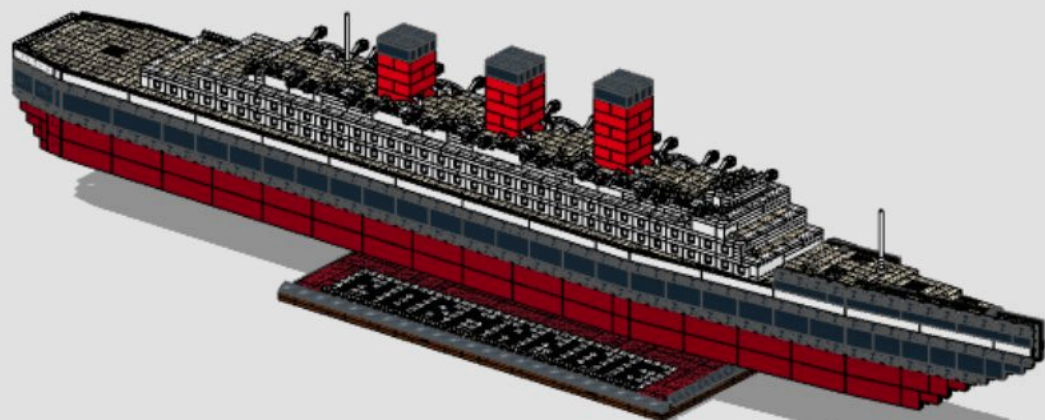

From the designer

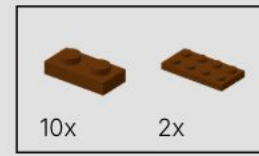

Every part of this Normandie comes out of the 10294 Titanic box. The Titanic's black hull plating and its rows of open-stud portholes wrap a new, finer hull that narrows to a raked bow, its dark red tiles run below the waterline, and its white decks, planked in the box's narrow tan tiles, step down aft in Normandie's famous terraces under three red funnels, each shorter than the one before. Sixteen lifeboats hang in their davits along the boat deck, and she rides on a bevelled display stand with her name in pearl gold studs.

A long, detailed LEGO Technic model of a city street scene. The model is built on a black Technic base. It features a long, low building with a red-tiled roof and a series of colorful facades in blue, green, and red. The building has multiple windows and doors, some of which are made of transparent Technic bricks. In front of the building is a parking lot area with a red-tiled floor and black parking spaces. The model is set against a plain white background.
